

Natural disasters call for each one of us to show what makes us humans. And it was the Heroes of Adarsh, who rose to the occasion to help those affected by floods that wreaked havoc in the last week of July in Rajasthan and Gujarat. Adarsh Foundation and Adarsh Credit Co-operative Society Ltd. volunteers impacted the lives of thousands of people stranded in flood-affected areas of Rajasthan and Gujarat. We thank you for your passion and service to the cause.

A Deluge Of Compassion

In the aftermath of heavy rains and flooding in Sirohi district, Adarsh Foundation was one of the first NGOs to respond to the crisis on a war footing. Adarsh Foundation distributed 37,300 food kits, 4000 tents and 200 blankets among the flood affected people in Sirohi. A helicopter was hired to distribute relief material in the villages of Jalore district of Rajasthan.

ADARSH PARIVARTAN

Adarsh Credit Co-operative Society Ltd, Dhanera branch staff and advisors were our flag-bearers when it came to flood aid distribution, in Banaskantha district of Gujarat, the area which bore the brunt of devastation due to floods. Adarsh Foundation went door-to-door and distributed milk powder tins, clean drinking water pouches, blankets and tarpaulin tents in villages in Banaskantha.

OUR PARTNERS

Adarsh Foundation distributed 6000 complete food kits, 1000 blankets, 750 tarpaulin and 1000 cooking vessels in Banaskantha, Gujarat, with support from Sri Mahudi (Madhupuri) Jain Shwetambar Murti Poojak Trust, Mahudi, Gandhinagar, Jan Vikas and HDRC, Ahmedabad.

To check the spread of diseases, Adarsh Foundation also organised free medical camp at the worst affected villages in Dhanera, Banaskantha, with support from Blind People's Association and Bareja Hospital, Ahmedabad. A total of 4000 people took benefit of these medical camps, where both general health and eye check-up was conducted and medicines were given out.

Adarsh Foundation reached out to labourers at construction sites around Ahmedabad, whose livelihood had been affected due to incessant rains. Adarsh Foundation distributed 1500 food packets in areas like Narol, Vatva and Juhapura slums, with support from Saath Charitable Trust.
